The Overland Bowling League, which is said to be the largest organ-ization of its kind in the United States will celebrate the opening of its fifth season on Monday night, Oct. 4, at the factory alleys of The Willys Overland Company. Elaborate pre-parations have been made to give the automobile makers a big send-off and the officials anticipate a record break ing attendance. The fifty piece Over land concert band and the Overland Glee Club will be on hand to enter tain their fellow workers with music and song. The membership of the league is open to employes of The Willys-Overland Company only. Each department of the factory is represented by a team composed of the five best bowlers in the department. Some of the den City, Weber County, State of departments have as many as three teams. In addition to these department teams there are fully 500 active members who use the alleys regularly throughout the winter. As the rank ing men of the entire number are chos en to represent the company in the state and national tournaments, competition for places is exceedingly
